Dear Sir Donald
As I fear I may not have the pleasure of seeing you when we return your engagements must be too numerous I think it well to write to you about the emigration business that I have proposed to write you about I got out girls through a friend in London with the object of instructing such as that I should not be responsible for them though they were submitted to me - Mr. Justice called up the other day to show upon what terms I had brought out the money, he was sent by the Migration Committee but that, I think, there will be any danger of the Government coming upon me - but I shall feel obliged if you would mention the agreement I had made with you - I think much pleased to see our young friends
