Parnell, Aug 4. 1871

My dear Sir

I am glad to be able to tell you at last that I have heard of the shipment of the N. Z. dictionaries by the "Alice" which sailed from Deal on the 11th of May. They should therefore be here very shortly. I am rather dissatisfied at the number of errors, a list of the most important of which is now in the press and will be ready before the books arrive. To whom shall I deliver them when they come?

Yours very sincerely
