2/1/48 (46) G. S. Cooper
Napier Oct 21/57.
My dear Sir,
I have very little news to give you by this mail.
The natives have had fight No 2. with killing loss, & Everything "as you were".
I am delighted to hear of the success of the "ministerial loan". I suppose that will make all right now. We had a great meeting yesterday to petition for troops, Rhodes & ? It would bring the

Quindell's is I fancy Alexander's. it is a fine one nevertheless. You will see me from me in just a position with Paddy Wake's speech which called it forth.
I need not take up time in alluding further to it as the whole thing speaks for itself.
I was greatly disappointed at not hearing from you per Mr. but your brother showed me all the he my mind to go that I should see Dan Wells for steamer at once. As you have which will sail about to me into the 27 or 28th inst. return scrape I must trust per next trip, in about to your pulling me a month. I am forced through. My departure to this journal, I have for Napier will be read for Wellington a bolt; for I shall not

I am sorry to hear that, but waste the public time & my own money for purpose, so I'm off. I will leave letters behind me for you.
I must now conclude as the messenger is waiting for the letters.
Ever faithfully
G. S. Cooper
