

3 pages written by James Edward FitzGerald to Sir Donald McLean

3 pages written by James Edward FitzGerald to Sir Donald McLean

Representation Bill. Post the hearing to create a new franchise under that Bill hardly a fitting vehicle; but if you get from this to a second reading, and you should, before the Representation Bill goes into Committee you will have to alter the latter a few words to make the two into fitting one. Print into type as soon as possible. And get Richmond to refer it to the Attorney General as soon as possible.

I wish I could fight this question under your lead; but I always had a difficulty to combine with which you avoid. They looked on me as a theorist and theorist with the great prestige of your practical acquaintance with the subject.
 I have half hopes that you may carry the measure. The great danger lies in such men as James Dick in the Opposition who will oppose giving two more votes to the Northern Island

3 pages written by James Edward FitzGerald to Sir Donald McLean

