

3 pages written by Sir George Stoddart Whitmore in London to Sir Donald McLean

3 pages written by Sir George Stoddart Whitmore in London to Sir Donald McLean

living tho' not thriving.

In India (and in some other place I'll tell you when I get home) where this is done and succeeds, I'd sell no more than I could help now of really agricultural land.

You must not be biased by the fact that at home they are trying to buy up copyholds & relinquish them. They lasted and succeeded for many centuries, when we are as old they may be no longer of

3 pages written by Sir George Stoddart Whitmore in London to Sir Donald McLean

me to us. Meanwhile they are

I have drawn my pay to date from which my lease commences I have sent my Vouchers, drawn up by the Auditor, to you.

Don't forget to send me by next mail or the succeeding one the papers you spoke of.
and believe me

Very truly yours

G. Stoddart Whitmore

P.S. They all have it you would up to such? to purchase to him Page !!!