J Simpson
6 Feb 64
My dear Mr McLean, Strange to say just when you are on the eve of leaving Dunedin home to school I have letters from my Brother Sammie from Ceylon about his son who has been at Rugby but has been lately removed to a Seminary near London - I cannot do better than hand you my Brother's letters with enclosures - they are written by my Sister - her brother's name is my nephew young Sammie as we call him - at this time they may prove interesting if not useful to you & also may be a
