Dear Sir

I want to ask you to do me a favour before you leave the country - Now Bell is Nat^l Minister I think you can prevail upon him to advance my Salary to £300 a year the same as all other Officers in the same category as myself.

When I took Office
I was promised an increase at no distant date, I have now served 5 1/2 years. & as to the nature of my duties in that period we are understood there so will no you — Mr Bell has twice mentioned the circumstance to me unasked for. His words are these. "I have spoken to the Governor and asked him to make your circumstances known in New Plymouth" Doubt only that I have asked you to speak for me. as I intend writing officially soon about it.

With kind regards

Believe me, Sir,

Yours Truly,

R. Parris
