

3 pages written 15 Dec 1852 by Dr Andrew Sinclair in Auckland Region to Sir Donald McLean

3 pages written 15 Dec 1852 by Dr Andrew Sinclair in Auckland Region to Sir Donald McLean

is here to, and that will do yourself good you will meet this in ways you do not yet distinction of Providence think of. What are we in a Christian spirit. looking for in this world It is a trial, though you unless to prepare us for may not have looked the change the one we forward to it, which lament has gone through.
You must not think your heart was bound up in are unable to bear such the girl, what can be done a good, gentle and innocent to console him? I expect creature as she was must grow grief to avenge his now be happy, and the and who that knows suffering you now undergo the good old man

3 pages written 15 Dec 1852 by Dr Andrew Sinclair in Auckland Region to Sir Donald McLean

would not relieve him of part of his sorrows if they would. He laments how over an only Child and she is not!

I heard the other day Mr. Gray was coming up here on a visit and I was looking out for him. Pray write on him to come now.
I shall be glad to give him a room in my large house and my niece will attend on him as well as myself with the most cordial feelings Every brevity as I am in haste as usual. Yours truly Andrew Sinclair