Dear Sir
3rd Feb 1866
I write a line by Mr. Tuke thinking that you would like to know what I am about in case you would require me at Napier.
I regret to tell you that except going amongst and looking after the stock I have not done any important work since I came up.
I have been doing little jobs at the stations, such as measuring the fence & building a new trap house &c. Mr Alex. did not wish to bring in the cattle till the sheep had been mustered & this operation has been delayed by Chapman's drafting, however if nothing prevents us we are to start on Monday morning ~~at~~ to make a gentl: muster for weaning &c. I have provided my self with two good dogs - when this is over we will commence the Battle, & then I purpose going over to Raikoro to get a Bill from Livingstonia for sheep - and indeed there are many little difficulties that will require attention, it is possible that two, or three of the Shepherds may be leaving, but this is only my opinion, That fellow Mr Dargall has given an immense quantity of trouble and has caused a great deal of trouble. T. Alex. = without delay to make him feel his own level, for the dishonest, & treacherous way he has acted, I wd. be glad to know your wishes regarding Linn's Bills, also a man at the Bent who wants to get sheep and would give a Bill on wood the shoemaker, if I don't
