

3 pages written 10 Jan 1853 by Sir Donald McLean

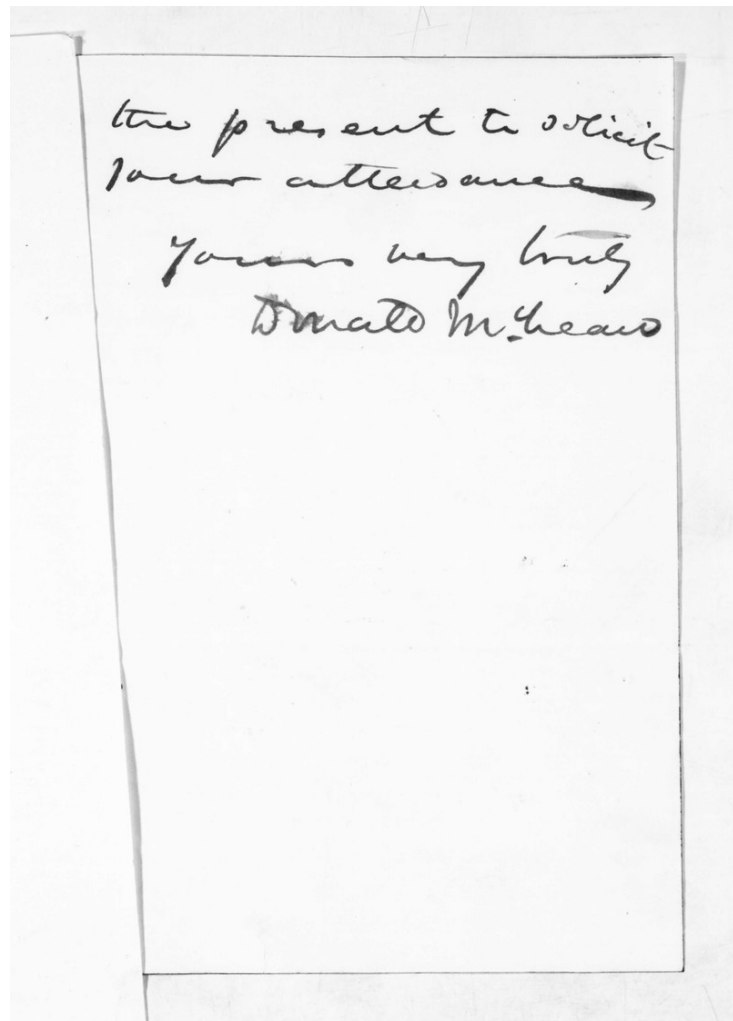

3 pages written 10 Jan 1853 by Sir Donald McLean

having occasion to request your attendance at a time when you have lost
your comfortable
house, at which I have received
so many kind attentions, but I feel assured that you will feel sensible that nothing but a sense of duty
would induce ^{me} at a time like

3 pages written 10 Jan 1853 by Sir Donald McLean

the present to solicit your attendance
Yours very truly
Donald McLean