to hear that a native
regiment is at length being raised in the Island I only wish could have the training and enlistment of some active young men for the service in the district as they would in the mean time do police duty and preserve the necessity of any other force, it is already I believe well proved that the headlanders will make excellent soldiers but they will also make useful and valuable citizens if only they are sent on foreign service and their national properties removed, the few I have in the police are most active and efficient but I feel myself as much tired and obliged to pass over some few native irregularities for want of a larger force to control and overawe them,

Dr Wilson a very respect-table letter from Waegamin of whom you have likely heard something has been on a visit here and is quite delighted with the place so much so that he will become a permanent resident and is anxious to choose his land in the block that has been lately purchased, a few such respectable & intelligent persons will be a great acquisition to
