My dear McLean

I received yours
the other day with much pleasure as it assured me you had not forgotten me - My time at the front was not my own; and every moment was occupied - Col. Whitmore always imagines a subordinate officer is a being to be made the same use of as a private - he scarcely recognises a distinction - We have got our night well this time against Te Kōhū thanks to Ropata's firmness - and Whitmore's good sense in listening to him - I wish Mr Richmond would take your advice (if you could be persuaded to give it him) in dealing about the lands here, already I fear he shows a weakness or fear of assuming responsibility - Why not take all lands in the district having large revenues to compensate friendly natives out of sales - I will write more tomorrow - I am very tired and rather unwell just now -

Kind regards

Yours ever sincerely

Charles Westrup
