L. Brown
10th Aug 1846
Dear Sir
I have the honor to be slightly acquainted with the whole of the business & I have therefore agreed with him to proceed at daylight with a gun, to perform the business in four days for one pound, or two shillings, only, if he be taken.
I have will pay him, but in the event of the absence of What gentleman I shall address the letter to Mr Taylor enclosing the same.

You will oblige me by writing to Mr Taylor, to procure in conjunction with Mr a notice to carry on the letter still hanging in for at the next day.
Should the gentleman I shall be at Wanganui, I imagine she will afford the most efficient assistance in the way of writing your self at her to high and I shall be prepared to
