Sir C. McLean
Sir

If from time to time, letters relative to yourself and the Native Office
published in the Standard, should have come under your observation you need not be in doubt
as to authorship,
as they emanate from the pen of J. E. Hui
ee Teacua at Hawa Hawa, who is now

employed the staff
of that journal.
I enclose
an extract from the Herald re Patiwahai
meeting I furnished
the translation.
I am Sir
Yours most faithfully
T.W. Porter
itself Repata is desirous of going to Wellington
this winter and wants me to accompany him shall I be of any service? I don't want to go.
