Auckland,
Jan. 17/70

My dear Mr. McLean

The "Star" goes to convey to you the latest intelligence from Waikato. Public opinion here, seems unanimous that the means endeavoured to be employed by Mr Firth to procure a cessation of hostilities are unpolitic.

is in a state of mild excitement, mainly owing to the reports circulated by both a Backland's friend or correspondent.
 I have it from the very best authority, that Kooti's motion in "going in" are influenced by the action of the King's natives, who have decided on at the conclusion to remain neutral & discontinue in every way their hostile intentions - the letter (my authority state) has shown to Kooti's will quiet, & will not remain quiet, while Kooti is tired of his present mode of life. I could not

 I can add.

Yours faithfully,
 Walter H. Pilliet

It is generally remarked just now (rightly or wrongly) that the time has arrived when an aggressive & decisive blow might be struck at Kooti, as he has failed to exhibit the practical sympathies of either the Kingite, or the Okeaniwa Natives.
