Auckland,
Jan. 17/70

My dear Mr. McLean

The "Star" goes to convey to you the latest intelligence from Waikato. Public opinion here, seems unanimous that the means endeavoured to be employed by Mr Firth to procure a cessation of hostilities are unpolitic.
& that it is to be

is in a state of mild excitement, mainly owing to the reports circulated by Firth or Backland's friends or correspondents.
 I have it from the very best authority, that Kooti's motion in "going in" are influenced by the action of the King's natives, who have decided on at the conclusion to remain neutral & discountenance in every way the King's hostile intentions - The letter (my authority states) has done so that it will quit, & will not remain quiet, while Kooti is tired of his present mode of life. I could not remark at greater length upon this subject, while you will clearly understand, upon receiving for better information than I can add.

Yours faithfully,
 Walter H. Pilliet

It is generally remarked just now (rightly or wrongly) that the time has arrived when an aggressive & decisive blow might be struck at Kooti, as he has failed to exhibit the practical sympathies of either the Kingite, or the Okeaniwa Natives.
