

3 pages written 29 Apr 1876 by John Webster to Sir Donald McLean

3 pages written 29 Apr 1876 by John Webster to Sir Donald McLean

have an excellent
number of articles & I hope every thing will go off pleasantly
I regret to have had the pleasure of seeing the Governor in Auckland & I anticipate a great
course with yourself
on various matters &
you will have
learn that our lecturer had a narrow escape from being overboard by chance by returning
the afternoon John Landon as member
I would have been little less than a crime to send a
man like that into parliament & it is now an open question
how your Customs in the following of

3 pages written 29 Apr 1876 by John Webster to Sir Donald McLean

