

3 pages written 27 Aug 1852 by Josiah Flight in New Plymouth to Sir Donald McLean

3 pages written 27 Aug 1852 by Josiah Flight in New Plymouth to Sir Donald McLean

neighbourhood which have awakened their attention to the subject of the sale of lands in so great a degree that I cannot but anticipate favourable results must follow from the deliberative meetings they are continually holding respecting it; and which results would I believe tend as much to benefit the Aboriginal as the European race.

I beg to express for the inhabitants of New Plymouth my thanks for the anxious endeavours you have made to further their welfare and advance their prosperity.

I have the honour to be
Sir,
Your very obedient Servant,
Josiah Flight,
Resident Magistrate.

3 pages written 27 Aug 1852 by Josiah Flight in New Plymouth to Sir Donald McLean

