Dear McLean

I was detained in Auckland some time
after you had left.
The old story about Parker his debts. Hori Pokai & Hoeti wishing to sell the whole of Waikato and on my refusing to treat with them (for the good reason that there were about twenty claimants about) Hoeti

from Col. Mearns to say that my pay abstract
would not be seized & my self dismissed
if I did not leave town immediately. I cannot think he sent this message without some person having been trying to advance my interests working him
in to a state of irritation

about me, I suspect Master Denton to be the man, I was obliged to shut him he was getting too long, & that he expects to be Colonial Secretary & National Secretary I told into me, he is exactly at a certain
way of insinuating
himself in people's

food places having
practised the same
ever since he arrived in the country - I hear the Brethren to make me feel the consequences of his displeasure, if the Col. means to refuse is a sample of his power he carries too
many guns for me.

I shall have to take more serious notice of
Mr. G. impermanis
than will be pleasant
for him - another point I mean as pointed out by Mr. Hori Parker has ordered me to be satisfied because I would not pay his debts with the property as you see I have me -
hoped to get into hot water since you left

I shall write to you
at Wellington from the Peaks I suppose you
will return about the middle of March.
The musquitos are
a caution - I have no news beyond what I have told you & that is not much account.
Y^r very sincerely
G^o W^o Drummond Hay
