

3 pages written by Isabelle Augusta Eliza Gascoyne to Sir Donald McLean

3 pages written by Isabelle Augusta Eliza Gascoyne to Sir Donald McLean

The weather has again become so from Manapapa lately very warm, and having we all think it better to been out in the sun I decline the invitation to was not out in consequence a thought home - we all yesterday, Jessie and go to Mrs Sinclair's house Miss Mendis have come on Friday evening, we intended walking to do not get know who Marsden's Bridge every one to be our guests our morning before breakfast Christmas day. We have I go out with Douglas but no news to give you not so far - He was every thing is going on asked to spend the day as usual - wishing you with Mr Jones, but we the comfort of the season were out when the cater with every kind of feeling and as you thought he without the ordinary good had better not go out (I presume fashionable) just at present (after all remarks on our own - the indignity he has resolution to believe

3 pages written by Isabelle Augusta Eliza Gascoyne to Sir Donald McLean

