 My Dear Mr. Lean I have got out of the way of writing you of late, and I never by any chance hear from you. The present is but a hurried line and my object is to ask if you can do any thing for a Capt. Barvers, who is I believe residing at Napier. he was a Merchant Captain and was part owner of the vessel he took out to Featherston the "Countess of Seaforth". all he had was invested in this vessel. she made an unfortunate voyage out. got damaged in a gale of wind. put in at Hobart Town for repairs, and I suppose had to mortgage the ship. the amount however should have been recovered upon a General Average on the cargo. but by some bad management some how by lost recourse upon the cargo the ship was seized for the claim and he lost all he had. I believe him to be a decent steady fellow.
 I must now tell you who he is.
 His father who his Wife's friends are - for know but little about him - he married a Miss Norton whose brother was a sister of poor Major Greenwood, and it is at her urgent request that I now write to ask if you can put him in the way of doing any thing for himself - he says he can get nothing to do - and he has a Wife & 2 children wish him to look after - I have said to Mrs Norton that I am sure you would do any thing in your power for latter services.

The great event of the day at home is the satisfactory completion of the Atlantic cable - it is at last a great success - the other great event is Peace in Germany and Italy - it has been short and sharp war. I hope your old friends the Mexicans have also had enough of fighting, but I am afraid they will want to try their strength again after the whole of the Troops are withdrawn - if so - it will be bad war.

Russell has been at home for the last two months - he has seen London in a strange state - a frightful financial Panic has lasted for nearly 3 months & money has been 100% at 10% of England.

I am sorry to tell you Mrs Graham is a great invalid - the children are all well - and all desire to be kindly remembered to you. I am Yours faithfully Donald McLean Esq. Wm. Smellie Grahame
