he had's offers no subject - to write on - Should you see him will you kindly let him know that the young person I have recommended to you is this letter is Maurice de Buge, now a fine steady and active lad - It is my mind if you to order my supplies for I know your position is a very high one, and the more honorable as must please you in it - I got the papers which you were closing and opening address to the Provincial Council and one of the Judges of this country to whom I showed them, appeared me he never heard from the lips, or read from the pen of any Statesman, a more able address - I also showed the letter and one, it would have the semblance of a head of Faith would have it published - I think yet I shall do so - If I was certain of a small addition to my present income by going out I think I should leave my bones in N. Zealand may I hope you will write soon and remain as I am shall yours most - J. H. T.
