

2 pages written 27 Nov 1858 by John Simpson Sanderson in Coromandel to Sir Donald McLean

J. S. Sanderson
Coromandel
Nov 27th 1858

My Dear Sir

I merely write this so that you may keep me in mind, when I accepted the appointment of Postmaster here, I was promised that some other little matter would be added to it, but this has been forgotten, even the license I applied for, but it was given to Pease,

I lately built a large shed here upon which and my house I have laid out my last shilling, I lately

arranged

2 pages written 27 Nov 1858 by John Simpson Sanderson in Coromandel to Sir Donald McLean

