

4 pages written 4 Dec 1872 by Isabelle Augusta Eliza Gascoyne

4 pages written 4 Dec 1872 by Isabelle Augusta Eliza Gascoyne to join me in seeing as fast young ladies to educate and as I know of no one who has a more extensive acquaintance than you I enclose a "Prospectus" and will feel indebted to you distributing them among any friends you think likely to send us pupils.

I hear regularly from our friends & relatives in Argyleshire, they expressed great pleasure at having seen Mrs Wm Hart. and Mrs Janet Laps I have a most affectionate recollection of her / Mrs Hart's

4 pages written 4 Dec 1872 by Isabelle Augusta Eliza Gascoyne

"Father in my early days as "a frequent visitor to the
"at Dunlaffry and at the "Mansion of Utopia - The Prince & Marguerite of Lorne were to be guests of Sir Donald's during the 1st week of Sep<sup>r</sup> - and they were to have a grand fashioning and Balls on the occasion - Sir Donald is not the leading man in the County next to the Duke & his Sons - I have long expected to visit from Douglas but fear he has not the same warm remembrance of his childish affections, that I have If with your prying eye

4 pages written 4 Dec 1872 by Isabelle Augusta Eliza Gascoyne

Give my love Fred in his last letter tells me he has just paid a visit to your brother Alec - who with Mr. Capt.
Moulton were delighted to see him, and much pleased to hear of his engagements to Marion Carr - who's father was an old friend So write me a line if you can spare time to say you have rec'd this and with my daughter's kind regards added to mine - believe me -
Your affec<sup>te</sup> cousin Isa Gascoyne
The Berrymount
Dec - 4 - 1872 - m Accept of all the comp<sup>s</sup> of the season