

3 pages written 27 Apr 1873 by John Maclean to Sir Donald McLean

My dear Sir
27th April 1873

My dear Sir
I have yours of 15th Inst. expressing surprise at not hearing from me. Had I for a moment thought that you would care to hear from me, no thing would have given me greater pleasure than to drop you a note now and again. But you are so fully occupied with your public duties that I would not wish to presume & trouble you with any communication from me that could be of no service and but of little interest to you.

I was glad to see by recent intelligence that you are still successfully preparing the way for the final Settlements

MANUSCRIPTS & PICTORIAL

3 pages written 27 Apr 1873 by John Maclean to Sir Donald McLean

of the first Sings land Water houses need, cross land in transit to the fertile soil you have caused him of a little of of the colony. He proposes I should rather prefer the what about the best business however when done here that a Honoai seems to be a good sub-feeling had various between will then be a direct line? you and your own remainder I suppose that we have been permitted to conform by the law the land of the Honoai seems to be I did see some very explanatory of a good business from him, but a political A general feeling of the time affairs of our superiors of time prevails here with respect to but that he has had upon you way to the General Agent here in preventing him from effecting almost ruinous to the best a better way with the Honoai's encouragement to this province, thing and thereby a certainty of which is a great pity being enabled. I see that Dr. Tallen is This of course might have been to represent the Government a bit of a reasonable variety in the in the super houses. You could had of Sir G. Rose, but of course, but here he acts as better to be better you know better. At any rate I see of the papers that the country

3 pages written 27 Apr 1873 by John Maclean to Sir Donald McLean

