

3 pages written 7 Feb 1876 by G Worgan in Wellington to Sir Donald McLean

3 pages written 7 Feb 1876 by G Worgan in Wellington to Sir Donald McLean chance for me, and would be glad to use his influence in any ^{case} in support of my application. I may I hope be excused in remarking incidentally, that judicial trusts are no novelty in my family. My uncle Sir Wm Parsons, was for many years Chief Police Magistrate in London, and my nephew John Worgan is at this time a judge, at Patna, in the Presidency of Bengal. Apart from any pretensions on my part, I rely on your long acquaintance with the ~~and~~ and I may say your unwavering kindness to feel sure that my case will not be neglected.

 The appointment would highly gratify Mrs Worgan, and if needs were I could place my son and his large family upon the spot, with plenty to do for all. I flatter myself the District would benefit by our presence.

I have the honor to remain

Dear Sir Donald
 most truly yours, obliged G Worgan

3 pages written 7 Feb 1876 by G Worgan in Wellington to Sir Donald McLean

