Auckland. Aug 16. 1866

My dear Sir,

pray do not misunderstand me to have meant that any political object was in view. in the steps contemplated. I thought it right simply to point out to you what might have escaped your notice - the effect that such a step would certainly have on the European mind and how hardly it would compromise the former's position. I subscribe with you in the object but not at
