

4 pages written 8 May 1856 by Morison Charles in Sydney to Sir Donald McLean in New Plymouth

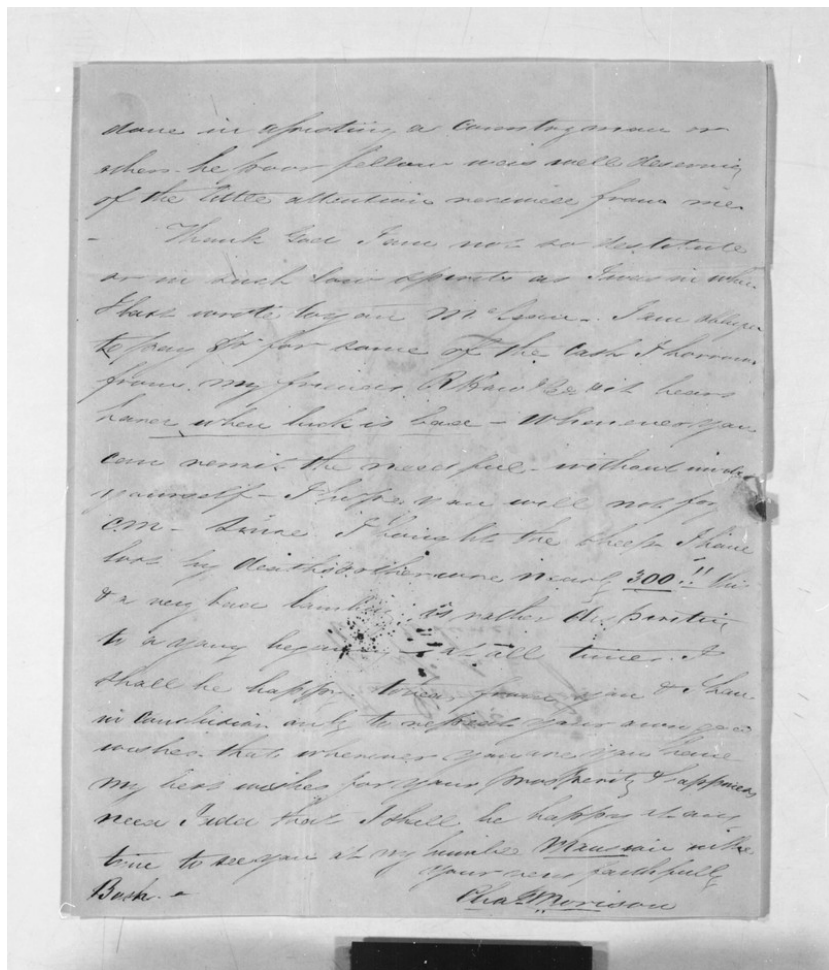

4 pages written 8 May 1856 by Morison Charles in Sydney to Sir Donald McLean in New Plymouth

Remembrance to check by me. Still I ought to be thank'd for the good health. I say but also from M. Stangall got the assurance of the "rising stars" of the ship of 500 tons, about 14 days after he arrived in L'Arrol. He says he has a wife & children in the place of the same from some port for London in August last - he is well & desirous of a good ship, poor fellow - Duncan M. Stangall, a cousin of his, who came out as second Mate in the "Amelia" has been written about here ever since, he says since for home in the hope of promotion -

Remember me to Murray I hope for me now to be in time, it was a fortunate thing for his poor fellow - that he left me at the time, but last trip to home you felt much pleasure & value have

MANUSCRIPTS & PICTORIAL

4 pages written 8 May 1856 by Morison Charles in Sydney to Sir Donald McLean in New Plymouth

4 pages written 8 May 1856 by Morison Charles in Sydney to Sir Donald McLean in New Plymouth

