Ki Poneke, ki a Kawana Hea, ki a Te Kapa kaiwhakawa, ki a Patene

To Port Nicholson, to Governor Eyre and Kemp - Judge, to Barton

E ta ma, e koutou tokotoru,

Sirs, the three of you,

Tenei ano taku korero ki a koutou. E mea ana ahau kia utua e Patene te kainga o Karauria, otira, e ta, e te Kawana Hea, mau ano te korero ki a Patene mo taua kainga, kia utua e ia. Hei utu mo nga patiti, me homai ki a Karauria Hape he utu, 24 pauna mo nga patiti. Na, kei mahara koe ko te kainga kua utua ki nga taonga o Patene, kahore, he kainga ke ano tenei, ko Hiringa te ingoa. Heoi ano taku korero.

I have this to say to you. I suggest that Barton pay for the land of Karauria, however, sir, Governor Eyre, you should speak to Barton about that land, that he pay for it. About the cost of the hatchets, the amount should be given to Karauria Hape, &#163;24 for the hatchets. Now, don't think that the land was paid for with Barton's goods, no, this is another place, named Hiringa. That is all I have to say.

E ta ma, kia pai mai koutou ki taku korero, me homai nga utu mo te kainga o Karauria, kia rite ki taku i ki atu ai ki a koutou. Ka mutu.

Sirs, if you approve of what I say, give me the payments for Karauria's land, the same as I requested. That's the end.

Naku, na to koutou hoa aroha,
 Na Wereta Kawekairangi

From me, from your good friend,
 Wereta Kawekairangi
