

3 pages written by J M Smith

2
James O'Connell · J M Smith
Christchurch

These fragments are very puzzling, and Middle-land journalists must either be silent on the subject, or make stupid blunders, or like the "Otago Daily Times" take everything that is said against the Nation
Minister for Gospel.
We wish, of course, to avoid anything which would place us in any one of these categories.

3 pages written by J M Smith

and to give reliable news as well as sensible and straightforward views. In fulfilling this purpose you can be,
as in the past you
have been, of great service.

My own idea of a correspondent is, that he should confine himself as much as possible to posting news. Then he shall

too much in opinions, as some correspondents
do, he detracts greatly from his usefulness,
and to a certain extent he may compromise the paper
he writes for as well.

I have always regarded your letters as being a credit to yourself and the paper, and I am sure the proprietors hold the same opinion.

3 pages written by J M Smith

The business part of Your private letter I have handed over to the gentleman who attends to these matters, and he will doubtless communicate with you.
I have occasionally indulged the hope that I may some day be able to visit the North Island, to pick up myself of men and things: should my hope ever be realised I hope to have the pleasure of making your acquaintance Yours very truly
J M Smith