Private & confidential

You will have heard of the arrival of your nephew Col Whitemore in this quarter. He had a very long from the natives. Some time since he came here and endeavoured to express my arrangements and obtain the same for himself not failing to state the position he held in relation to the natives into his terms. However, in full among a they rejected him and told him it was dead in my hands. He then wrote me a note saying he found really had a claim, and as it would be very to in dispute with any one he relinquished all idea of obtaining that particular claim or words to that effect with the other day he came back again endeavoured to
